The Coming King

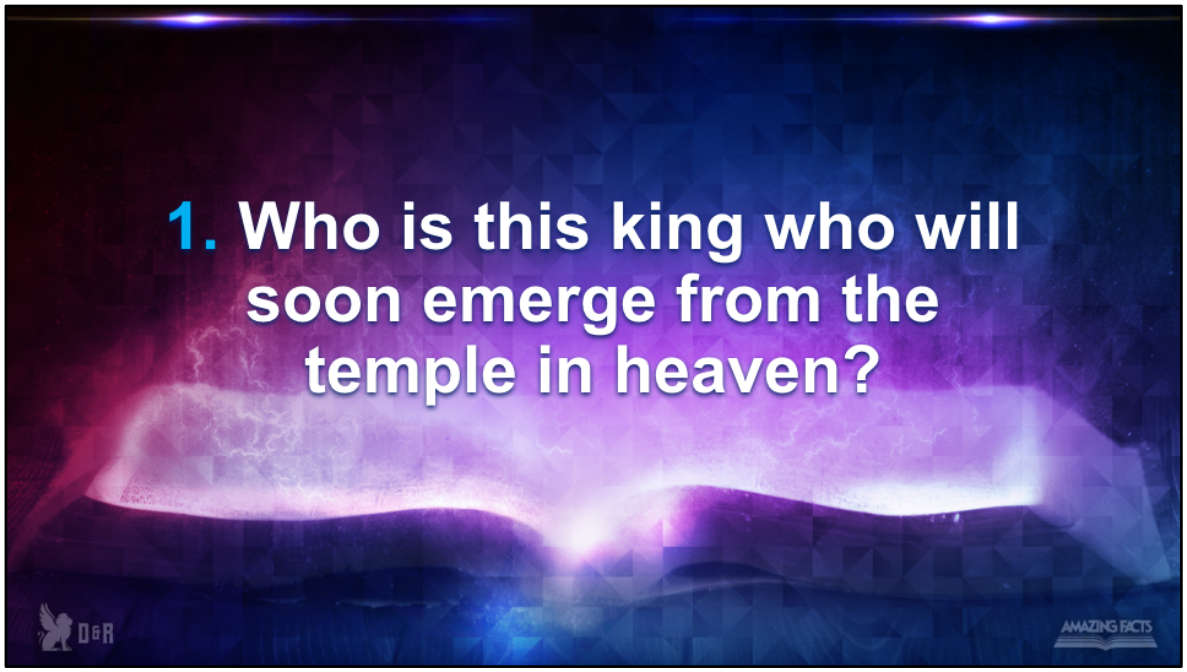

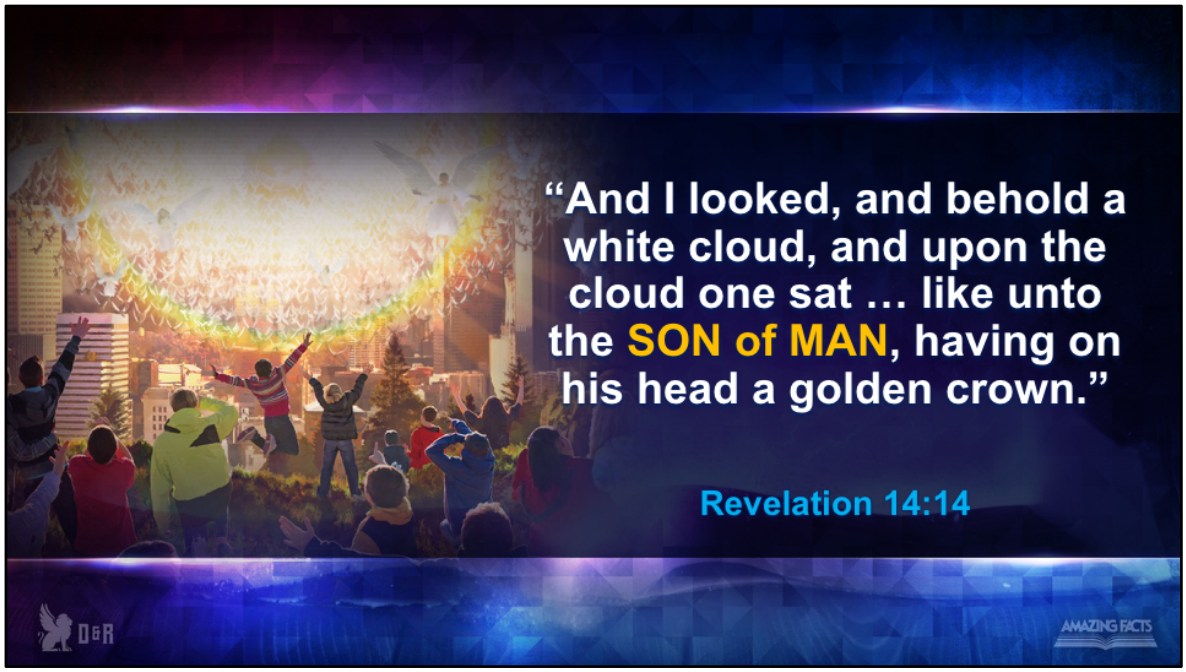

Athaliah, the ruthless queen of Judah, was even more wicked than her mother Jezebel. When her son Ahaziah died, she quickly seized control of the kingdom by executing all of her grandsons who might reign in her place. “But Jehosheba, ... Sister of Ahaziah, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and ... they hid him from Athaliah, so that he was not slain. And he was with her hid in the house of the Lord six years. And Athaliah did reign over the land.” 2 Kings 11:2, 3.For six years only a handful of trusted people knew that the royal child was living and hidden in the temple of God. Jehoiada, the high priest, loved and trained young Joash as his own son. For six years Jehoiada planned and prayed for the best moment to present this rightful heir to the people. Finally the old priest secretly summoned trusted captains in the army and showed them that the youngest son of Ahaziah was still alive. They decided to wait until Friday evening, when all of the faithful people would come to the temple for Sabbath worship, to present the young king to them. With hundreds of armed soldiers on every side, Jehoiada brought the heir of David’s throne before the crowd and introduced him. At first the people were astonished, but when they saw the royal crown placed upon his head, “they clapped their hands, and said, God save the king.” 2 Kings 11:12. Now when wicked Athaliah heard the noise of trumpets and all the people rejoicing, she came running into the temple only to discover that her reign of terror was through. That day she and her followers were slain, and Joash was given the kingdom. The Bible tells us that another son of David will soon emerge from the heavenly temple amidst the blowing of trumpets to receive His rightful kingdom and to destroy the wicked.

NOTE: "Tempestuous" means "turbulent and stormy." The second coming of Jesus will clearly be noisy beyond description. There will be nothing secret about it!

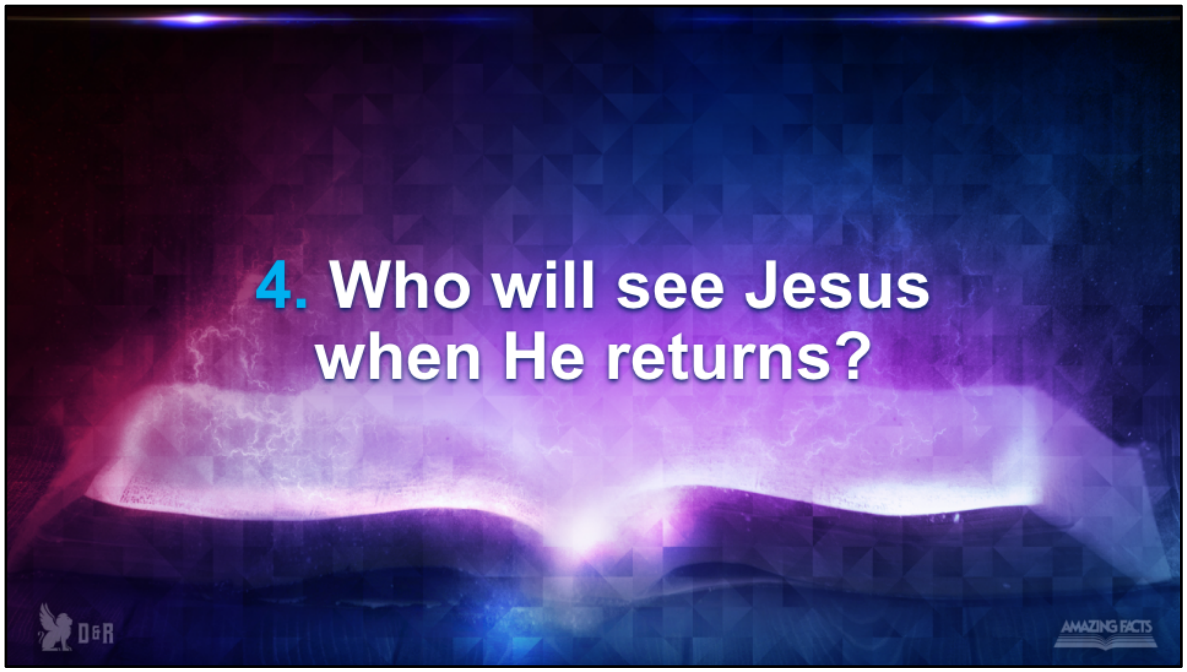

Now we will talk about how he is coming. Many misunderstood the first coming, could misunderstand the second coming.

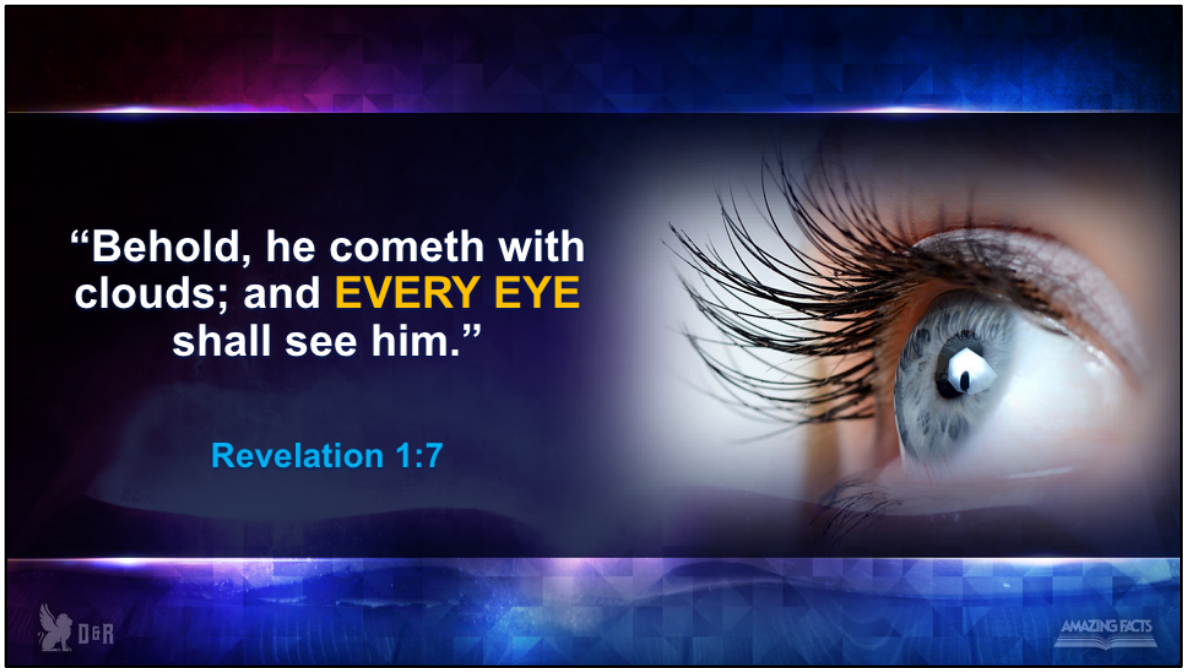

"But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night, in which the heavens will PASS AWAY with a GREAT NOISE, and the elements will MELT with fervent heat; both the earth and the works that are in it will be BURNED UP."

AMAZING FACTS

NOTE: This is too clear to misunderstand. Every person alive, wicked or righteous, will see Jesus return to earth. A secret gathering, or "rapture," of God's people is not described in the Bible.

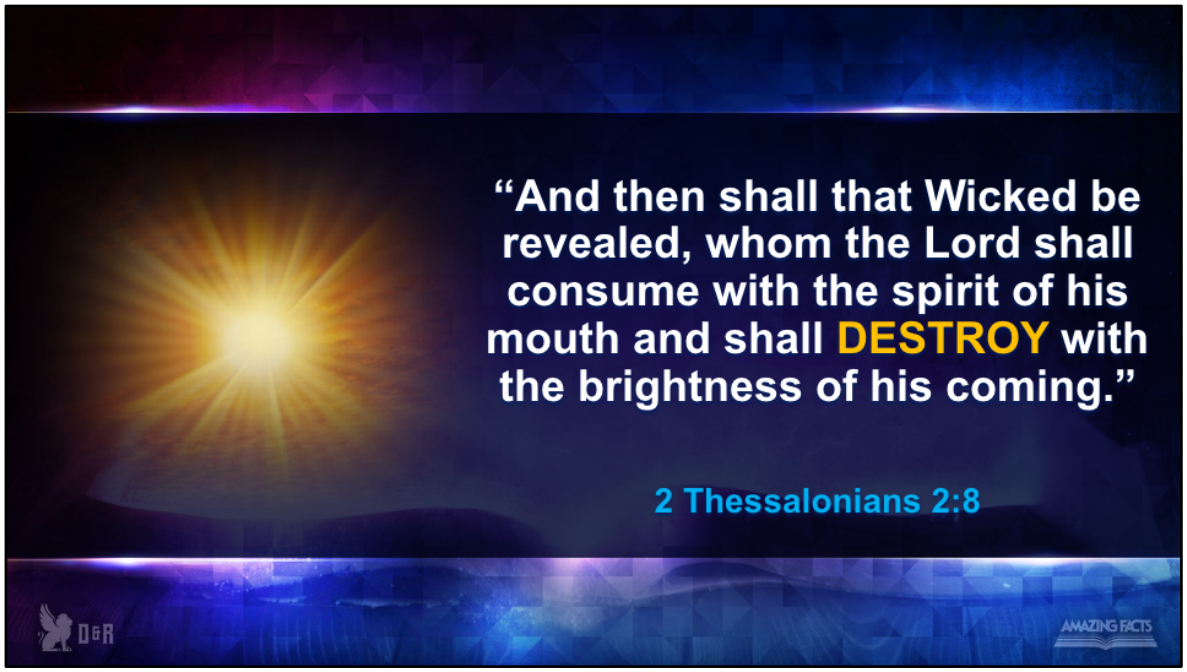

5. Who will be with Jesus when He returns in the clouds?
D&R
AMAZING FACTS

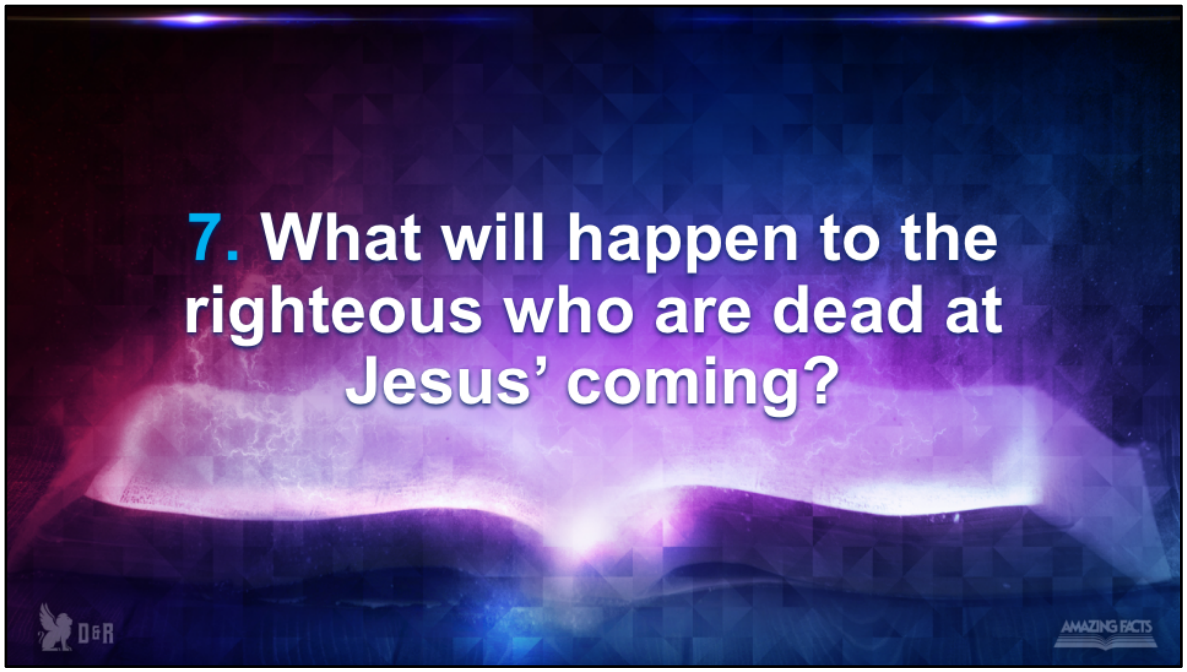

NOTE: The brightness of the Lord's return will, by comparison, make the brightness of a hydrogen bomb pale into insignificance. At Jesus' tomb, the brightness of one angel caused all the Roman guards to fall to the ground as dead men (Matthew 28:2-4). The brightness of all heaven's angels will make Jesus' second coming too bright for anyone to miss. Added to this will be the fantastic glory of Jesus and the Father (Luke 9:26). Jesus' second coming will be like lightning flashing from one horizon to the other (Matthew 24:27).

NOTE: No one except God has immortality now (1 Timothy 6:15, 16). But it will be given as a free gift to the righteous at Jesus' second coming. Their bodies also will be changed into heavenly, incorruptible bodies, like that of Jesus (Philippians 3:20, 21).

AMAZING FACTS

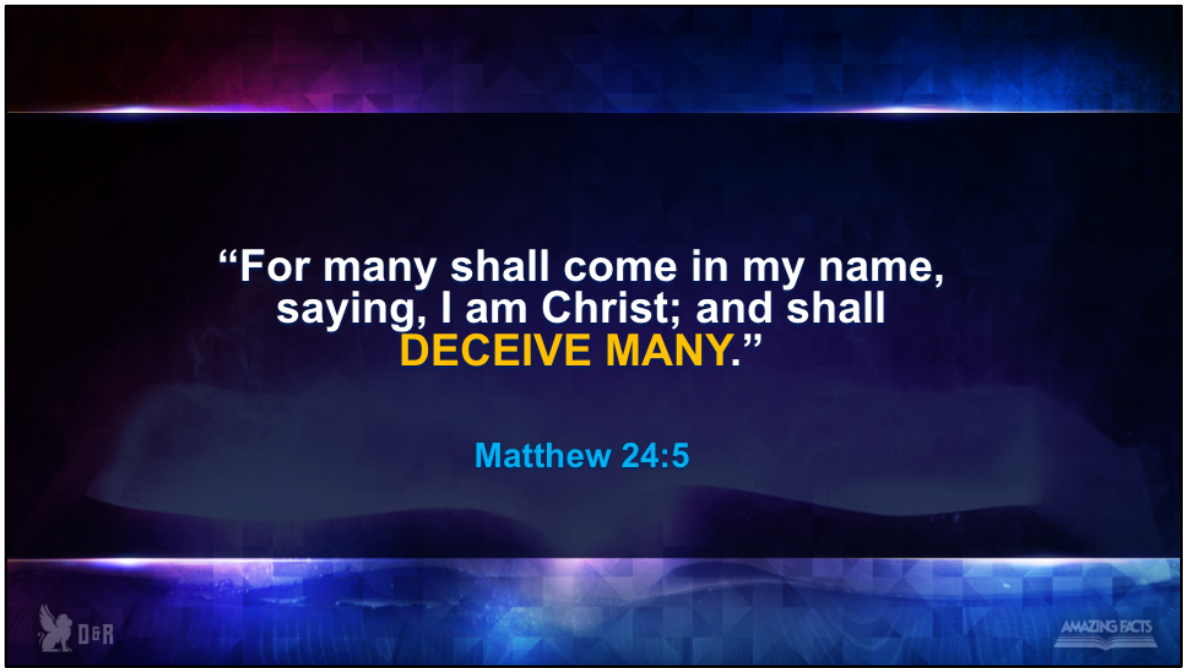

NOTE: God's saints will meet the Lord in the air. Jesus does not touch the earth at His second coming, so He will not appear on the earth, as many believe. His second coming will be a sky appearance, not an earth appearance.

Otto Witte- In 1913, the little country of Albania, in Eastern Europe achieved its independence. There were many Muslims in Albania, and they chose as their leader a Turkish prince named Helim Eddine. Prince Eddine seemed reluctant at first to leave his native Turkey to visit Albania, but one day a telegram was received saying that he would soon come to the Albanian city of Durazzo. The people of Durazzo turned out in force to greet the prince. They could tell at once he was a nobleman. He was tall, spoke with authority, wore a splendid uniform, and carried a long sword. When he told them he would lead an attack against the hated city of Belgrade, they went wild with excitement. The people of the city quickly declared the prince to be the new king of Albania and had a coronation ceremony. The new king chose a strange name for a Moslem - Otto the first. But the people were not critical of their hero. They cheered him everywhere he went and showered him with costly gifts. Everyone was happy. Five days later, however, another telegram arrived. Otto the first, it said was a fraud, the real Prince Eddine was still in Turkey. The people rushed to the palace to learn the truth - but the phony King had fled! For King Otto the first was really Otto Witte, a German circus performer who could neither read nor write who had carried out one of the boldest hoaxes in History.

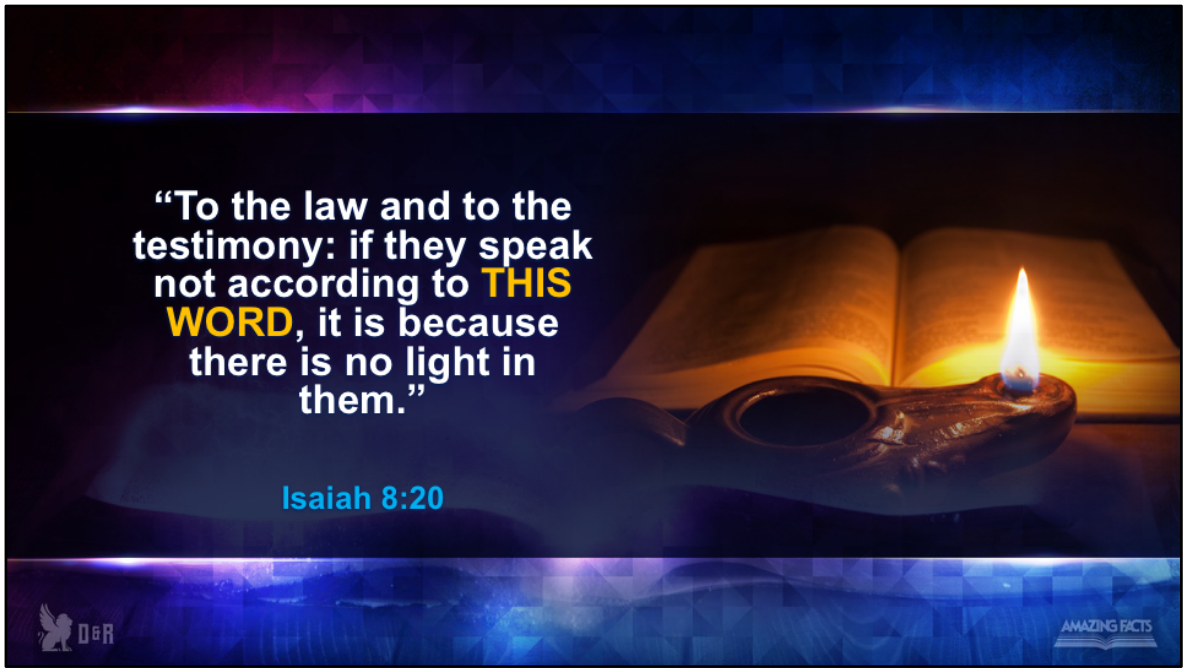

NOTE: Satan will impersonate Christ's second coming by appearing upon the earth as a glorious being, and he will deceive billions. Jesus has warned us that He will not touch the earth at all at His second coming, but rather will remain in the air. The dazzling deceptions of Satan will be so convincing that most people will be deceived.

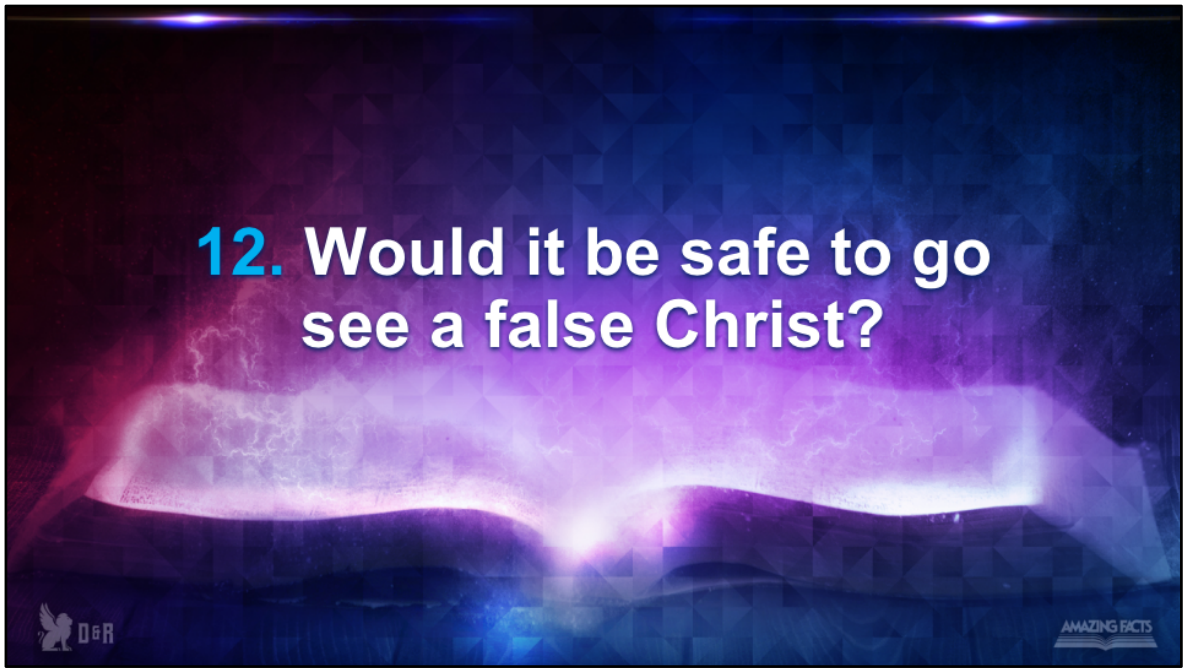

"For there shall arise FALSE CHRISTS, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and WONDERS; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect."

AMAZING FACTS

NOTE: God's people will not be deceived, because they will know from a study of God's Word just how Jesus will come (Acts 17:11). Any appearing that is not in agreement with Scripture is a counterfeit and must be rejected. Jesus forewarned us. Matthew 24:25 Behold, I have told you before.

AMAZING FACTS

NOTE: Only God knows the exact time of the second coming. All date setting is out of harmony with the Bible. But Jesus made it clear that when we see the signs of His coming fulfilled (Matthew 24:4-51; Luke 21:8-33; and 2 Timothy 3:1-8), we can know that His coming is very near—even at the doors.

Worldwide Surge in 'Great' Earthquakes Seen in Past 10 Years
BY LINDA CARROLL

The annual number of "great" earthquakes nearly tripled over the last decade, providing a reminder to Americans that unruptured faults like those in the northwest United States might be due for a Big One.

Between 2004 and 2014, 18 earthquakes with magnitudes of 8.0 or more rattled subduction zones around the globe. That's an increase of 265 percent over the average rate of the previous century, which saw 71 great quakes, according to a report to the annual meeting of the Geological Society of America this week in Vancouver, British Columbia.

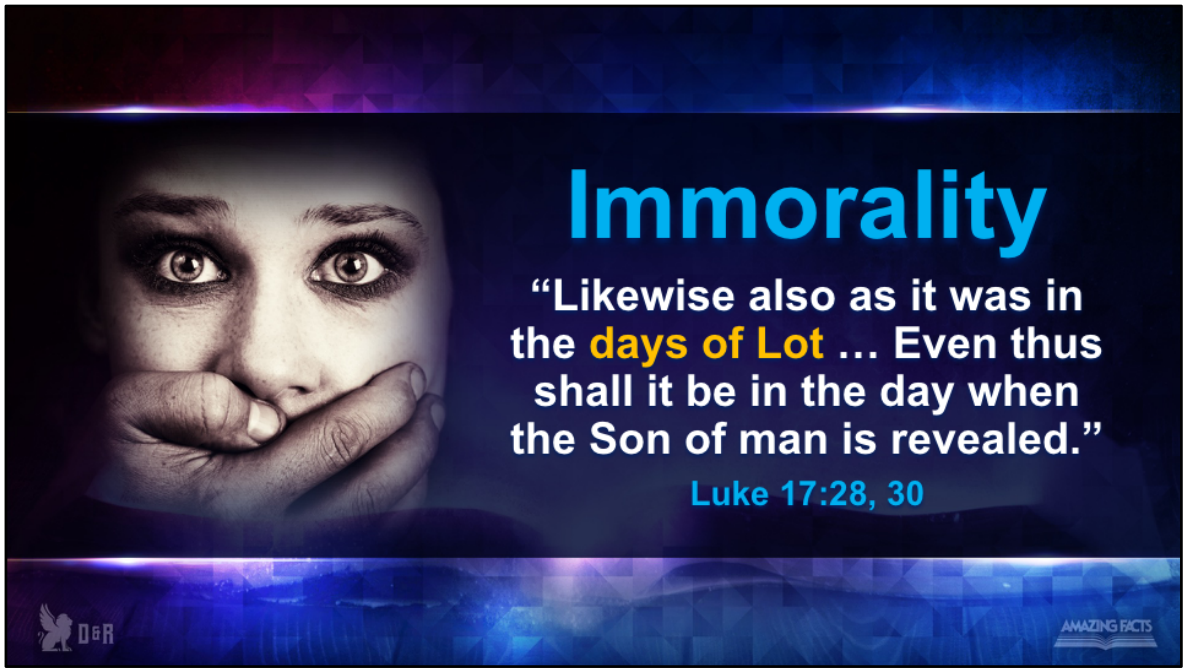

National Geographic reports "Living Planet Index" in 40 years between 1970 and 2010 there has been a 52% decline in wildlife.

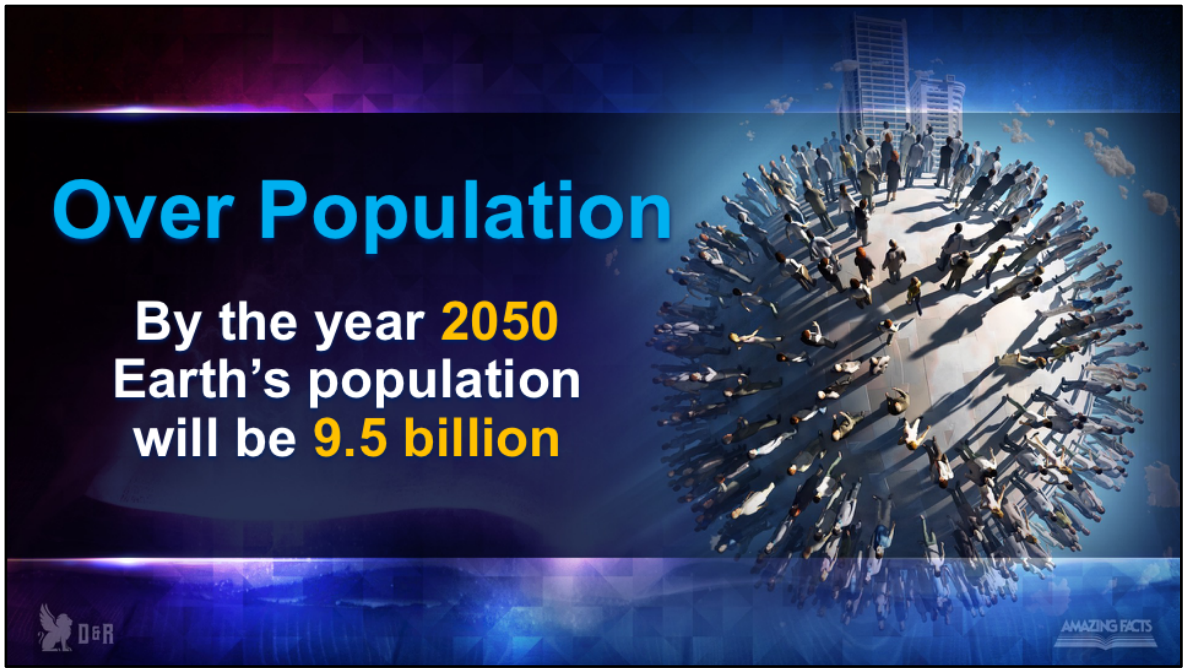

“Measuring over 2,000 sources, data on over 10,000 populations of around 3,000 species of mammal, bird, reptile, amphibian, and fish from around the globe were used,"

This declined by 52 percent between 1970 and 2010, "a much bigger decrease than has been reported previously," according to the report.

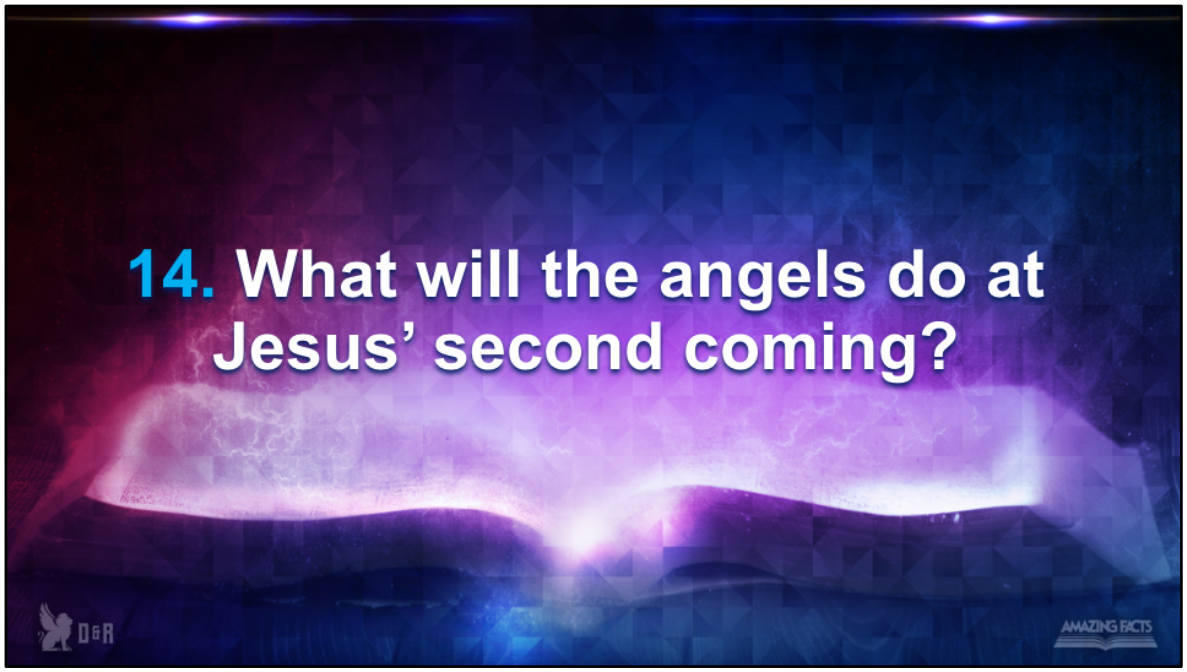

The 52 percent figure refers to a general trend of vertebrate species populations shrinking, on average, to about half the size that they were 40 years ago, according to WWF spokesperson Molly Edmonds.

Every day more American youth die in gang violence than fighting in foreign wars.

Cabanatuan

The Raid at Cabanatuan, also known as The Great Raid, was a rescue of Allied prisoners of war (POWs) and civilians from a Japanese camp near Cabanatuan City, in the Philippines. On January 30, 1945, during World War II, United States Army Rangers, Alamo Scouts, and Filipino guerrillas liberated more than 500 from the POW camp.

After the surrender of tens of thousands of American troops during the Battle of Bataan, many were sent to a Cabanatuan prison camp following the Bataan Death March. The Japanese transferred most of the prisoners to other areas, leaving just over 500 American and other Allied POWs and civilians in the prison. Facing brutal conditions including disease, torture, and malnourishment, the prisoners feared they would all be executed as General Douglas MacArthur and his American forces returned to Luzon. In late January 1945, a plan was developed by Sixth Army leaders and Filipino guerrillas to send a small force to rescue the prisoners. A group of over a hundred Rangers and Scouts and several hundred guerrillas traveled 30 miles (48 km) behind Japanese lines to reach the camp.

In a nighttime raid, under the cover of darkness and a distraction by a P-61 Black Widow, the group surprised the Japanese forces in and around the camp. Hundreds of Japanese troops were killed in the 30-minute coordinated attack; the Americans suffered minimal casualties. The Rangers, Scouts, and guerrillas escorted the POWs back to American lines. The rescue allowed the prisoners to tell of the death march and prison camp atrocities, which sparked a new rush of resolve for the war against Japan. The rescuers were awarded commendations by MacArthur, and were also recognized by President Franklin D. Roosevelt. A memorial now sits on the site of the former camp, and the events of the raid have been depicted in several films.

Jesus is coming in the clouds very soon. Will you plan to now be ready to meet Him?
